SNAPPY SPRING STYLES!

WHAT'S THE SENSE of waiting a week on your tailor when you can come here and walk off with a suit that fits as good as any "merchant tailor's," and embodies the snappiest style, and the hand-somest materials?

Then think of the variety you have to select from. What merchant tailor can lay before you such a varied assortment from which to match your individual preference?

Added to all this, the price is very much lower than you would have to pay the tailor. Have you any objections to saving the difference? The illustration shows two of the season's most popular leaders, both bearing the famous Schloss label which stands for solid merit. The price range starts at $12.00.

DEEDS WIFE TO ANOTHER

Then Man Drives New Owner and Woman Away.

HAMMOND, Ind., April 25.—Deeding one's wife away as if she were a piece of real estate or personal chattel is the latest sensational escapade of martial life in Whiting. At the complaint of Joseph Sherburn, a Whiting saloon keeper, Hammond policemen arrested Fred Siegrist and Eva Sherburn at Robertsdale. Siegrist was armed with a magazine gun which was taken away from him by a ruse, just as he was going to shoot the police.

At his trial this afternoon Siegrist exhibited a quit-claim deed from Sherburn, in which the latter transferred all rights and claims to the woman for life, providing that Siegrist took proper care of her. Further cross-examination showed that Sherburn then ordered the couple out of his house, and they began life anew in Robertsdale, a suburb of this city. Sherburn and his wife have been married twenty years. Siegrist was released on bond pending further investigation of the singular proceedings.

Mrs. Dan Snyder is ill at her home in the Fifth ward.

Mr. A. F. Burroughs, advance agent for the DeBarry Gill Concert Company, of Staunton, Va., is visiting relatives in the Fourth ward.

Louis Lapoint, who formerly lived in Fairmont, and went away on a visit a short time ago, is back again with his relatives here.

Mr. Leroy E. Fox, of Uniontown, Pa., was in the city to-day calling on old acquaintances.

FAIRBANKS' STAR RISES.

Senator, 'Tis Said, Will be Roosevelt's Running Mate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, seems almost sure to receive the Republican nomination for the Vice-Presidency.

The sentiment of the party as reflected by the leaders in Washington is crystallizing upon the senior Hoosier Senator, and eminent authority asserted that Mr. Fairbanks will be a most acceptable running mate for Mr. Roosevelt. Many prominent Republicans have been anxious to have the Indiana Republican convention, which will meet at Indianapolis Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, instructed for Senator Fairbanks for second place on the ticket. This will not be done, however, for the dual reason that Hoosier Republicans consider Senator Fairbanks as "Presidential timber" rather than in the Vice-Presidential class, and because Senator Fairbanks is in no sense a candidate for the latter position.

Knowing his wishes, his most powerful friends in the party are studiously refraining from pushing his candidacy prior to the meeting of the Chicago National Convention, when his name will be offered as an expression of the sentiment of the majority of his party.

One of Senator Fairbanks' closest friends in Congress, when asked for an expression of opinion, said:

"Senator Fairbanks will be nominated. He is not a candidate. His friends are not pushing him as a candidate. Sentiment in his party is crystallizing in his favor, and while I have not received the slightest intimation from Senator Fairbanks, whom I know is not a candidate, that he would accept, I am certain he would take it if the nomination came to him from the party in convention."

Representative Jesse Overstreet, of Indiana, chairman of the House Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads, and one of the influential members of his party in the House, said:

"Indiana will instruct for President Roosevelt. It will make no declaration as to the Vice-Presidency. It will elect Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge, Governor Durbin and State Chairman J. P. Goodrich as delegates-at-large."

Representative Edgar D. Crumpacker, of Indiana, said:

"No, Indiana is not going to instruct for Senator Fairbanks or anyone else for the Vice-Presidency. We regard Senator Fairbanks as 'too big' to urge him for the Vice-Presidency. If we declared for anyone for the Vice-Presidency it would be for Governor Durbin. Realizing, though, that although Senator Fairbanks is not a candidate for the Vice-Presidency he will nevertheless be the choice of his party in the National Convention, we will instruct for no candidate.

"I have no doubt now that Senator Fairbanks is going to be nominated over his own head. He is Presidential timber. His record in the Senate shows he is a strong, broad-gauged member of the party."

The Times says so much about its columns not being for sale it begins to look like a banter. It would be too bad if some one would go in and offer the editor a quarter for an editorial favorable to the leading business interests of this community.

Times reporters today have heard more than once the remark: "If whiskey selling at a few places was really stopped on Sunday there would not be so much objection to the orders."

This is taken to infer that, notwithstanding the vigilance of the officers, some of the places are still selling on Sunday.—Saturday's Times.

Is it possible! This wicked, wicked city! According to the above, only "some of the places" are selling. Now, that is really too bad. We thought there was to be no favoritism under Brother Kinsey's administration. Alas, alas, how our hopes are shattered!

The latest entrance into West Virginia field of daily newspapers is the Fairmont West Virginian. On its start-off the West Virginian looks good, and if it continues the pace it has set, it will prove one of the State's best newspapers. As the matter now stands there is no city in the country the size of Fairmont which can claim as excellent newspapers as that town produces. The News hopes that Fairmont proves worthy its perusal.—Wheeling News.
